

ANNALES UNIVERSITATIS APULENSIS. SERIES HISTORICA, 2009,
Special issue

Paradigm Change of the Ecclesiastic and Laic History of the Transylvania in the 18th Century. The Scientific Studies of the Conference Held in Alba Iulia, October 15-16, 2009

BOTOND GUDOR,
Foreword, pp. 5-12

I. Convergences, Divergences and Continuity in Historical Writing: The Transylvanian Dimension of the Historiographical Paradigm Change

ANA DUMITRAN,
Activity of Romanian Cultural Elite from Transylvania from the XVIIth Century an Example for Intellectuals of the Following Century, pp. 15-19

JAN-ANDREA BERNHARD,
Bod Péter's Historiographical Work within the Frames of the European Ecclesiastical Historiography, pp. 21-43

ESZTER GYÖRFFY,
The Significance of Péter Bod as a Historiographer in the Light of the Change of the 18th Century's Paradigm, pp. 45-53

GYÖRGY PÉTERFFY,
József Benkő, Historian of Transylvania, pp. 55-63

ATTILA VERÓK,
In the Service of History and History of Culture at German Universities. The Role Played by Martin Schmeizel for the Development of Historia Litteraria in Hungary during the 18th Century, pp. 65-76

II. Training centers and historiographical paradigm change in Transylvania: From centre to periphery. European dimensions

ÁDÁM HEGYI,
The Role of the University of Basel in the Cultural History of Hungary in the 18th Century, pp. 79-100

LAURA STANCIU,
Tmava (Nagyszombat) – The Formative Space of the Romanian Intellectual Elite in XVIIIth Century, pp. 101-112

BOTOND GUDOR,
State University Leiden (Netherlands): Formative Space of the Transylvanian Students through Peregrination Academica: The Case of Péter Bod (1712-1769), pp. 113-183

IACOB MÂRZA,
The Key-Concepts of "Church" and "Union" in the Foundation Acts of the Schools of Blaj (1754), pp. 185-191

III. Confessional Tolerance and Intolerance as Historiographical Paradigm

JÓZSEF MARTON,
Religious Tolerance and Intolerance in Transylvania after the Religious Reform, pp. 195-210

ANA MARIA ROMAN-NEGOI, CRISTINEL ROMAN-NEGOI,
The Concept of Tolerance in the View of the Emperor Joseph II. The Landmarks of the Analysis, pp. 211-217

REVIEWS

Ernst Christoph Suttner, Kirche und Theologie bei den Rumänen von der Christianisierung bis zum 20. Jahrhundert, Freiburg, Institut für Ökumenische Studien der Universität Freiburg Schweiz, 2009 (Laura Stanciu), pp. 219-222

List of the authors, p. 231